

BIO

DJ, musician and producer, Nejo is a contemporary artist with vintage elegance! His career into djing began at the dawn of the 2000s after his experiences as a guitarist and bassist. Over the years his wide-ranging vision of the music scene has led him to experiment with numerous sounds, from dance going through disco, funky, acid jazz, rock up to RnB. All these various influences come together and blend in his true great love: the "House Music"! Charisma, versatility and a music selection that is never ordinary are elements that cannot miss in his every single set.

"Many describe their own style as original, innovative, enthralling, mine is above all an unceasing and constant search of personality and style". [DJ Nejo]

VISUAL

ALBUM

Days Gone By (part I) is the first album by the young and talented Italian DJ Nejo. With this release DJ Nejo explores elements of house and electronic music both past and present. The different textures are enhanced by numerous featured artists, guest vocalists and live instrumentation. Days Gone By is an ambitious debut album where an electronic music production meets the involvement of musicians.

CONTACT

NEJODJ.COM

